Copy of the report of the Tahsildar ,Bellary in his L.Dis.6224 of 1952 -A6 dated ~~20-12-52~~ 30-12-52 in reply to R.C.No.34/52-A7 dated 20-12-52 of the D.S.Police,Bellary.

Sub:- Gratuity-Compassionate gratuity-allowance to the legal heir of the late P.C.51 Md.Ali information furnished,

119

My enquiry reveals that Syed Bi aged about 30 years wife of Late P.C.51/B.E. is the legal heir of the deceased.She and her four children who are below the age of 8 years were solely depending upon him.The deceased had not left any movable or immovable property behind him.They were depending upon the pay of the Deceased.The deceased did not ~~xxxxxxxxxxx~~ insure his life.His wife also does not own any property.The widows relatives are not in a position to help her.She belongs to a middle class family.During the life time of her husband, she did not go out to earn and due to her inexperience, she is not fit for any professional work.Also she is physically not fit to carry on any manual labour.From the time of her husband's death she managed to maintain herself and her children till now from the amount of about Rs.300/- received from the Govt. from the ~~X~~ G.P.F. account. of her late Husband.She is now struggling hard to maintain her children in these hard days. Her case may be sympathetically considered and necessary financial assistance may be given to her.

Her statement to-gether with the statement of the V.M. Bellary is enclosed.
